Oanh (Mishu) Pham-Whipple

mishupw@uw.edu
C: 206 605 1673
www.linkedin.com/in/mishu-pham-whipple

Experience

Public Policy Project Associate – Triangle Associates. Inc.
May 2016 – present
Provided support to facilitation and public involvement teams on environmental, transportation and land use public policy projects.

Lead Outreach Associate - 3 Degrees Inc.
September 2016 - May 2016
Conducted community outreach at events, storefronts and in local neighborhoods to increase awareness and participation in local renewable energy programs.
Represented Seattle City Light's Green Up program and Puget Sound Energy's Green Power program.

Student Ambassador - College of the Environment - University of Washington
January 2016 - present
Interacted with parents, and prospective and current students at various events

Student Research Consultant - Friends of Mount Baker Town Center
Fall 2016
Analyzed the feasibility of a district energy system in the neighborhood.

Project Coordinator - Green Seed Fund – University of Washington Sustainability Office
Winter 2016
Managed a grant fund that supports sustainable university research.
Wrote articles about funded projects, published by UW Sustainability

Lead Volunteer - Carbon Washington (Yes on WA I-732)
June 2015 – Nov 2016
Discussed climate change with people from all backgrounds.

Volunteer - Empowered Eco-Education
September 2015-December 2015
Designed and conducted environmental education based lessons with kids ages 6-12.

Academics

University of Washington:
Dean's List - Autumn '13, Summer '14, Winter '15, Autumn '15, and Summer '16
B.A. in Environmental Studies '16
Awarded departmental Environmental Leadership Scholarship
B.A. in Community Environment Planning '17
Sustainable Urban Mobility Study Abroad Program

Skills

Collaboration, Leadership, Communication, Education, Administration, Writing

Familiar with ArcGIS software – spatial analysis tools, including vector & raster analysis, model builder